

Seyma Yavuz CSS '97

Şeyma Yavuz received her undergraduate degree from Bilkent University School of Business Administration. She also owns a graduate degree from Harvard University Extension School Scientific Studies of Business Administration.

She has been in different positions at Harvard Club of Turkey, President between the years of 2009-2016, Vice President 2004-2009, and Harvard Alumni Association Regional Director for Europe 2009-2015 responsible of 7 countries including Italy, Greece, Spain, Cyprus, Israel, Turkey. Now she is a board member of Harvard Club of Turkey after many years' experiences.

She is working at Deloitte Turkey since 2005 as Events and Marketing Manager, and responsible of all events, marketing communications of Deloitte Turkey Internally and externally.

Through her career she has many experiences in different types of events and marketing communication strategies. She is single with no children.